SEC. ____. SENSE OF THE SENATE REGARDING SOCIAL SECURITY RESTRUCTURING.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Senate finds that—

(1) Social Security is the foundation of retirement income for most Americans;

(2) preserving and strengthening the long term viability of Social Security is a vital national priority and is essential for the retirement security of today's working Americans, current and future retirees, and their families;

(3) Social Security faces significant fiscal and demographic pressures;

(4) the nonpartisan Office of the Chief Actuary at the Social Security Administration reports that—

(A) the number of workers paying taxes to support each Social Security beneficiary has dropped from 16.5 in 1950 to 3.3 in 2005;

(B) within a generation there will be only 2 workers to support each retiree, which will substantially increase the financial burden on American workers;

(C) without structural reform, the Social Security system, beginning in 2017, will pay out more in benefits than it will collect in taxes;

(D) without structural reform, the Social Security trust fund will be exhausted in 2041, and Social Security tax revenue in 2041 will only cover 74 percent of promised benefits, and will decrease to 68 percent by 2079;

(E) without structural reform, future Congresses may have to raise payroll taxes nearly 50 percent over the next 75 years to pay full benefits on time, resulting in payroll tax rates of as much as 17.5 percent by 2041 and 19.1 percent by 2079;

(F) without structural reform, Social Security's total cash shortfall over the next 75 years is estimated to be more than $25,000,000,000,000 in constant 2005 dollars or $5,700,000,000,000 measured in present value terms; and

(G) absent structural reforms, spending on Social Security will increase from 4.3 percent of gross domestic product in 2005 to 6.4 percent in 2079; and

(5) the Congressional Budget Office, the Government Accountability Office, the Congressional Research Service, the Chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, and the President's Commission to Strengthen Social Security have all warned that failure to enact fiscally responsible Social Security reform quickly will result in 1 or more of the following:

(A) Higher tax rates.

(B) Lower Social Security benefit levels.

(C) Increased Federal debt or less spending on other federal programs.

(b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the sense of the Senate that—

(1) the President, the Congress, and the American people including seniors, workers, women, minorities, and disabled persons should work together at the earliest opportunity to enact legislation to achieve a solvent and permanently sustainable Social Security system;

(2) Social Security reform—

(A) must protect current and near retirees from any changes to Social Security benefits;

(B) must reduce the pressure on future taxpayers and on other budgetary priorities;

(C) must provide benefit levels that adequately reflect individual contributions to the Social Security system; and

(D) must preserve and strengthen the safety net for vulnerable populations including the disabled and survivors; and

(3) the Senate should honor section 13301 of the Budget Enforcement Act of 1990.

At the appropriate place, insert the following:

SEC. ___. SENSE OF THE SENATE ON THE CRIME VICTIMS FUND.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Senate finds the following:—

(1) The Victims of Crime Act of 1984 (''VOCA'') was enacted to provide Federal financial support for services to victims of all types of crime, primarily through grants to state crime victim compensation and victim assistance programs.

(2) VOCA created the Crime Victims Fund (''the Fund'') as a separate account into which are deposited monies collected from persons convicted of Federal criminal offenses, including criminal fines, forfeitures and special assessments. There are no general taxpayer generated revenues deposited into the Fund.

(3) Each fiscal year, the Fund is used to support—

(A) formula grants to States for financial assistance to upwards of 4,400 programs providing direct victim assistance services to nearly 4,000,000 victims of all types of crimes annually, with priority for programs serving victims of domestic violence, sexual assault and child abuse, and previously underserved victims of violent crime;

(B) formula grants to States to supplement State crime victim compensation programs, which reimburse more than 150,000 violent crime victims annually for out-of-pocket expenses, including medical expenses, mental health counseling, lost wages, loss of support and funeral costs;

(C) the Antiterrorism Emergency Reserve, to assist victims of domestic and international terrorism;

(D) discretionary grants by the Office for Victims of Crime to provide training and technical assistance and services to victims of Federal crimes;

(E) Children's Justice Act grants to States to improve the investigation and prosecution of child abuse cases;

(F) victim witness coordinators in United States Attorney's Offices; and

(G) victim assistance specialists in Federal Bureau of Investigation field offices.

(4) In the 108th Congress, a strong bipartisan, bicameral majority in Congress affirmed its support for the Crime Victims Fund and increased its commitment to crime victims in the Justice for All Act of 2004 (Public Law 108–405), which establishes Federal crime victims rights and authorized 2 new VOCA-funded victim programs.

(5) Before fiscal year 2000, all amounts deposited into the Crime Victims Fund in each fiscal year were made available for authorized programs in the subsequent fiscal year.

(6) Beginning in fiscal year 2000, Congress responded to large fluctuations of deposits into the Fund by delaying obligations from the Fund above certain amounts, as follows:

(A) For fiscal year 2000, $500,000,000.

(B) For fiscal year 2001, $537,500,000.

(C) For fiscal year 2002, $550,000,000.

(D) For fiscal year 2003, $600,000,000.

(E) For fiscal year 2004, $625,000,000.

(F) For fiscal year 2005, $625,000,000.

(G) For fiscal year 2006, $625,000,000.

(7) In the conference report on an omnibus spending bill for fiscal year 2000 (Public Law 106–113), Congress explained that the reason for delaying annual Fund obligations was ''to protect against wide fluctuations in receipts into the Fund, and to ensure that a stable level of funding will remain available for these programs in future years''.

(8) VOCA mandates that ''. . . all sums deposited in the Fund in any fiscal year that are not made available for obligation by Congress in the subsequent fiscal year shall remain in the Fund for obligation in future fiscal years, without fiscal year limitation''.

(9) The Crime Victims Fund is a trust fund established without tax payer dollars to assist crime victims and should continue to be respected.

(10) For fiscal year 2006, the President proposed to ''rescind'' $1,267,000,000 from amounts in the Fund. Congress rejected this proposal in the Science, State, Justice, Commerce, and Related Agencies Appropriations Act of 2006 (Public Law 109–108) and reaffirmed that amounts deposited or available in the Fund in any fiscal year in excess of $625,000,000 shall remain in the Fund and not be available for obligation until the following fiscal year.

(11) For fiscal year 2007, the President is recommending ''rescission'' of $1,255,000,000 from amounts in the Fund.

(12) The rescission proposed by the President would result in no funds being available to support crime victim services at the start of fiscal year 2008. Further, such rescission would make the Fund vulnerable to fluctuations in receipts into the Fund, and would not ensure that a stable level of funding will remain available for vital programs in future years.

(13) Retention of all amounts deposited into the Fund for the immediate and future use of crime victim services as authorized by VOCA is supported by many major criminal justice organizations, including—

(A) American Bar Association, Criminal Justice Section;

(B) National District Attorneys Association;

(C) National Sheriff's Association;

(D) 56 Attorneys General;

(E) National Organization for Victim Assistance;

(F) National Network to End Domestic Violence;

(G) Mothers Against Drunk Driving;

(H) National Children's Alliance;

(I) National Alliance to End Sexual Violence;

(J) National Coalition Against Domestic Violence;

(K) National Center for Victims of Crime;

(L) National Association of VOCA Assistance Administrators;

(M) National Association of Crime Victim Compensation Boards;

(N) United States Conference of Catholic Bishops;

(O) National Grange;

(P) the Justice Project;

(Q) Victims' Assistance Legal Organization, Inc;

(R) Justice Solutions, NPO;

(S) Pennsylvania Coalition Against Rape; and

(T) National Organization for Parents of Murdered Children.

(b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the sense of the Senate that the funding levels in this resolution assume that all amounts that have been and will be deposited into the Crime Victims Fund, including amounts deposited in fiscal year 2007 and thereafter, shall remain in the Fund for use as authorized under the Victims of Crime Act of 1984.

SECTION 1. SENSE OF THE SENATE ON THE UNITED NATIONS HUMAN RIGHTS COUNCIL.

(a) FINDINGS.—The Senate finds that—

(1) the United Nations Secretary General stated in March 2005, "the Commission on Human Rights suffers from declining credibility and professionalism, and is in major need of reform" and that a fundamental problem is that, "States have sought membership . . . not to strengthen human rights but to protect themselves against criticism or to criticize others";

(2) the United States and other countries called for the abolition of the United Nations Commission on Human Rights and its replacement with a new Human Rights Council;

(3) current Members of the United Nations Commission on Human Rights, the primary human rights body of the United Nations, include some of the worst violators of human rights in the world, such as China, Cuba, Saudi Arabia, Sudan, Venezuela, and Zimbabwe;

(4) there are no criteria regarding the human rights record of a country for membership on the new United Nations Human Rights Council and even those countries that are found complicit in massive and sustained human rights abuses would be able to serve;

(5) even countries under sanctions by the United Nations Security Council for human rights violations or terrorism are not categorically excluded from membership on the United Nations Human Rights Council;

(6) the Government of the United States, which had been a member of the United Nations Commission on Human Rights every term since 1947, with 1 exception, has played a leadership role in efforts to promote human rights throughout the history of the United Nations Commission on Human Rights;

(7) the Government of the United States would be ineligible for membership on the Human Rights Council every 6 years;

(8) the Government of the United States formally opposed the creation of the United Nations Human Rights Council in a General Assembly session on March 15, 2006; and

(9) the Government of the United States would be required to cover 22 percent of the costs of the Human Rights Council.

(b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the sense of the Senate that—

(1) the Government of the United States should decline to participate on the United Nations Human Rights Council until the Secretary of State certifies to the Congress that the United Nations has passed a resolution affirming that countries found complicit in sustained human rights abuses are ineligible for membership in the United Nations Human Rights Council; and

(2) the Government of the United States should not provide any funds for the United Nations Human Rights Council until the Secretary of State certifies to the Congress that the United Nations has passed a resolution affirming that countries found complicit in sustained human rights abuses are ineligible for membership in the United Nations Human Rights Council.

SA 3120. Mr. SMITH submitted an amendment intended to be proposed by him to the concurrent resolution S. Con. SEC. ______. TO EXPRESS THE SENSE OF THE SENATE THAT LEGISLATIVE ACTION SHOULD BE TAKEN TO INSTITUTE EQUITY UNDER THE MEDICARE PROGRAM FOR PERSONS WITH MENTAL ILLNESS.

(a) FINDINGS.—

(1) Almost 36,300,000 Americans were over age 65 in 2004, with the population projected to almost double to 71,500,000 by 2030.

(2) It is estimated that 20 percent of, or over 7 million, adults age 65 and older suffer from a mental illness and that because of population growth and an increased incidence by 2030 this number will grow to 15.7 million.

(3) 5,248 older Americans died by suicide in 2003.

(4) In 2002, older Americans comprised 12.3 percent of the population, yet represented 17.5 percent of completed suicides.

(5) Caucasian men over age 85 are at greatest risk, with a suicide rate almost 5 times higher than the national average.

(6) It is reported that among older adults, for every completed suicide, 4 attempts are made.

(7) Research shows that 20 percent of older Americans who die by suicide visited their physician within the previous 24 hours of their suicide, 41 percent within the previous week of their suicide, and 75 percent within the previous month of their suicide.

(8) The Medicare program discriminates against persons with mental illness by imposing a 50 percent copayment on outpatient mental health services compared to a 20 percent copayment for outpatient physical health services.

(9) Correcting this inequity in the Medicare program was one of the top ten White House Conference on Aging resolutions.

(b) SENSE OF THE SENATE.—It is the sense of the Senate that the functional totals in this resolution assume that Congress should act to provide mental health copayment equity to America's seniors under the Medicare program.
